the SNFE, which was previously mentioned by U.S. Customs.

Bureau's attention is directed to information furnished by U.S. Customs, Miami, indicating that the Department of Justice was contemplating prosecution in connection with the arrest on October 31, 1962 by Customs of ten members of the SNFE on the Miami River. This information was made available by Customs subsequent to the March 17, 1963 raid by the SNFE, and the case was to go to Grand Jury on April 17, 1963.

On April 16, 1963, the Department advised Customs this case was not to be presented to the Grand Jury as prosecution was not being considered at that time. Customs indicated they considered it an air-tight case if prosecution desired.

The above is mentioned in view of the considerable time necessarily devoted to the administrative phase of this case in submitting a weekly report.

This report has been classified SECRET as it contains information taken from a CIA memorandum which was so classified.
